King Pacific Lodge Wilderness Retreat

Luxury in the heart of the Canadian wilderness. Moored in the shelter of Barnard Harbour on Princess Royal Island, King Pacific Lodge is quite simply the most luxurious wilderness lodge ever built. Designed for absolute comfort. Positioned to capture spectacular views of the landscape. A remarkably civilized place in the midst of absolute wilderness. Envious. Extraordinary. And, very exclusive. The lodge, open from May to October, offers one-of-a-kind wilderness experience packages that include fly-in fishing, kayaking, spa treatments, and more. A Virtuoso Select Lodge.

The all-inclusive package allows you to enjoy all that the lodge has to offer in each of the seasons: ocean fishing in June, family picnics and long summer days in July and August or world class fly-in fly-fishing and Spirit Bear trips in September.

Package includes:

- Meet & greet services in Vancouver
- Round-trip flights from Vancouver to the lodge with a light meal on board
- Champagne welcome reception
- Elegant accommodation in spacious rooms as specified
- All meals including beverages and open bar
- A wide selection of guided activities including ocean fishing, hiking, kayaking, wildlife viewing and a cultural program
- Use of all lodge facilities

FACT SHEET:

Location

In pristine wilderness teeming with wildlife in British Columbia, Canada, anchored along the shore of Barnard Harbour, Princess Royal Island (which has no permanent inhabitants or structures), in the heart of the world's largest remaining tract of temperate rain forest. About 50 miles north of Bella Bella.

The Lodge

A floating luxury wilderness lodge built of native pine, fir, cedar and stone on a 100 x 60 square foot barge, with 17 guests rooms and suites, wrap-around deck with spectacular views, spa, Jacuzzi and plunge pool.

Operation

May through October. The lodge is towed from its winter home in Prince Rupert to its summer operational location in Barnard Harbour.

Accessibility

From Vancouver Airport, guests are flown by private charter to Bella Bella, where they board a floatplane for a scenic transfer to the lodge's front door. Round-trip air transportation from Vancouver is included in the cost of packages.

The Dining Room

Features ocean views on two sides, large open fireplace, and family/group dining, or if preferred the option of individual dining. Capacity of 28 guests.

The Great Room

The gathering and relaxing area features a cathedral-height ceiling, ocean views, comfortable leather sofas, oversized armchairs and a large double-sided open fireplace.

Game Room/Meeting Room

The game room features shuffleboard, a large card table, darts and a fly-tying table. The game room can be converted to an executive boardroom or small meeting room with a maximum capacity of 28.

King Pacific Lodge Wilderness Retreat

Accommodations

The lodge offers 17 guest rooms, including three suites, all of which feature in-room bathrooms with deep Osaka tubs and showers, and the ultimate in luxurious linens, towels and robes. The guest rooms are configured as follows:

1 Standard Room (one king-size bed)

13 Standard Rooms (one king-size bed/two twin-size beds)

2 Junior Suites (one king-size bed, one queen-size bed)

Princess Royal Suite (living room with fireplace, dining room, powder room, master bedroom, dressing room, bathroom with Jacuzzi, shower, adjoining bedroom with king-size bed)

Staff/Guests

Thirty staff members attend to guests, including the lodge manager, a guest host, the wilderness guides, and the chef and kitchen and serving staff. The lodge accommodates a maximum of 28 guests.

Experiences

Professional wilderness guides offer interpretative hikes, sea kayaking, beach combing, heli-hiking, whale watching, wildlife viewing, star gazing, floatplane tours, fly-tying instruction and cultural tours with the indigenous Gitga'at. The region is home of the rare cream-colored 'Spirit Bear' and local native guides lead bear-viewing searches in September. Saltwater trolling and fly-fishing are also offered, as well as remote freshwater heli fly-fishing.

Wildlife

The area is teeming with wildlife including orcas and humpback whales, black bears, Kermode bears (a type of black bear, also known as the Spirit Bear and which is more rare than the panda, with a double recessive gene responsible for its creamy white coloring), seals, sea lions, sea otters and eagles.

Dining

Gourmet dining, featuring local and regional organic produce and fresh seafood, is included complete with champagne upon arrival, award-winning wines and an open bar.

The Spa

Features a full menu of signature treatments, enjoyed either in-spa or in-room, including massage, body wraps, aromatherapy and reflexology. Among the facilities are a treadmill, sauna, steam room, cold plunging tub and hot tub.

Weather

In the summer, temperatures range from 21° - 27° C (70° - 80° F) during the day and 10° - 16° C (50° - 60° F) at night.

What to bring

Guests should pack comfortable, casual clothes adaptable to the summer temperatures, and a swimsuit for the Jacuzzi or one of the many alpine lakes. For guests interested in land expeditions, hiking boots or shoes and a water-resistant windbreaker are highly recommended. The lodge is totally isolated, so guests need to remember to bring prescriptions, sunscreen and plenty of film for their cameras. King Pacific Lodge provides everything for ocean and fly fishing excursions, including insulated flotation rain gear.
